

Clinics will be held in Axton, Virginia at Sandy River Equestrian Center. They will run from 9 AM to 4PM each day and include lunch at noon in the bunk house. The cost is $175 for each clinic, you may preregister and pay in advance. To register please contact Sam Henley, sam@eqmtc.com or (540) 488-5416. Cash, Check, or Credit Card (5% processing fee) accepted.

Clinic 1 - February 1 - 2: No Hoof, No Horse; Equine Hoof Care with David Tuggle, Professional Farrier

Day 1: Basic Anatomy and Function • Injuries and Problems
Proper Way to Pick Up a Hoof

Day 2: How to Properly Pull a Shoe • Basic Trimming and Shoeing
Corrective Trimming and Shoeing • Alternative Shoeing

Clinic 2 - February 29: Lets Get to the Core of It - Rider Fitness and Balance with Ann Mary Bettenson, Certified Personal Trainer

Fitness and Balance of the Rider

Morning Rider Workout followed by Afternoon Ride
Private Evaluations Available on Request

Clinic 3 - March 21 - 22: Let's Get to the Body of It: Equine Lameness and Treatment with Dr. Mark Wallace, Carolina Equine Hospital

Lameness Evaluation • Sport Horse Treatments

Alternative Therapies: Jessica Bortner-Harris with Pulse Electromagnetic Field Therapy

Natalie Barker, Chiropractic Treatments • Laser Treatments

Clinic 4 - May 2 - 3 : Beyond the Braids - Preparing Your Horse for Competition, Difficult Horses with Sam Henley, EMTC Program Administrator

All Things Pertaining to Grooming and Competition
Dealing with Difficult Horses • Rehabilitation